Terms of service

These terms govern the use of Assinaflow, a monthly subscription service for curated boxes. By subscribing, you agree to these terms.

The service

Assinaflow delivers one curated box per billing period to the address in your account. The contents of each box change every month and may vary by tier.

Eligibility

You must be at least 18 years old and have a valid payment method to subscribe.

Subscription and renewal

Your subscription renews automatically every month, or every 12 months with annual billing, until you stop it. You can stop future renewals at any time from Account > Subscription, as described in the account guides.

Prices and payment

All prices are in USD. We notify you by email at least 30 days before any price change applies to your next renewal. Taxes depend on your delivery address and are shown on each invoice.

Orders and refunds

Each renewal creates an order. Order cancellations and refunds follow the Orders and delivery guide and the Refund policy.

Acceptable use

You may not resell boxes in bulk, create accounts with false information or use the service to commit fraud. We may suspend accounts that break these rules.

Liability

Our total liability to you is limited to the amounts you paid to Assinaflow in the 12 months before the claim.

Changes to these terms

We notify you by email at least 30 days before any change to these terms takes effect.
